LOUD OR UNRULY GATHERING ORDINANCE

A REMINDER THAT IT'S ALSO A VIOLATION OF THE CALIFORNIA PENAL CODE SECTION 415

Under Penal Code § 415 PC, California law defines the crime of disturbing the peace as doing any of the following:

1. playing excessively loud music,
2. fighting in public, or
3. using certain offensive language or fighting words.

Disturbing the peace charges can be filed as either a misdemeanor or a noncriminal infraction.

FAILURE TO COMPLY/NONCOMPLIANCE:

Failure to comply with directives of university officials acting in the performance of their duties or resisting or obstructing such university officials in the performance of their duties—including failure to identify oneself as a USC student when asked, to carry and/or provide upon request appropriate USC student identification, regardless of whether on USC property or not—is prohibited.
